Re-connecting!

Some of you will have seen that we have launched the St Mary's CEP facebook page this week with a photo message from all of the staff to all of you. Follow the link to see this and like the page so that you see what else we post.

I would like to say thank you to the staff for engaging so willingly with our photo message to you all and in particular to Miss Sayer for inspiring us and creating the final edit! Mrs Milton combined the images to make a large photograph which is now on the school website and can be seen in the photo gallery and by following this link <http://www.st-marys-dover.kent.sch.uk/photo-gallery/>

With your permission it would be lovely to post some pictures of the children and/or their home learning work on the school Facebook page. If you have something you would like to share please email it me on headteacher@stmarysprimary.net.

I hope that you are able to mark the 75th anniversary of VE day on Friday 8th safely at home. The following link has some good ideas about how this is possible and information about what will be going on that we can join in with. <https://www.veday75.org/>

World War 2 Spitfires were out flying over the locality on Wednesday I wonder if any of you saw them?

Message from the Class Teacher

Hello Dolphins

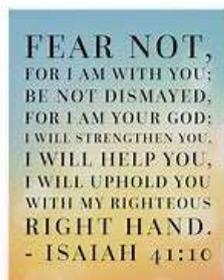

I hope you have had a good week this week. I have managed to get out into my garden and have certainly enjoyed watching my plants grow and begin to flower. I even spotted a nest of tiny spiders, some bumble bees moving from flower to flower feeding and 2 blackbirds taking a bath every day in a bowl outside door. They seem very tame. They have a great song which makes me smile. Have you noticed anything different outside when you are there?

Monday saw us start a new week and if you are a Star Wars fan you might have celebrated by watching a film or cartoon, maybe building a space ship. Friday is the official celebrations for VE Day when we would have had a day off school to remember the end of World War 2. I hope you have had the chance to watch some of the celebrations and tomorrow Mr Trelfer and I will be stopping and standing still at 11 for a 2-minute silence. When we did this in class on Remembrance Day I know you were very respectful and understood the importance of this act.

Continue to stay safe and well. Remember to wash your hands during the day and especially after you have been outside.

Best Wishes, Mrs Trelfer

The Week Ahead!

Week Commencing 11th May 2020

We are meeting back with Miss Emms this week for Literacy and continuing our story of The Fire maker's Daughter. It is time to make a lighthouse and enjoy one of my favourite stories - The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch. As we live near the sea, we understand how greedy gulls can be. Enjoy and let me know what you think. My email is alison.trelfer@stmarysprimary.net
