Message from the Headteacher

Re-connecting!

Some of you will have seen that we have launched the St Mary's CEP facebook page this week with a photo message from all of the staff to all of you. Follow the link to see this and like the page so that you see what else we post.

I would like to say thank you to the staff for engaging so willingly with our photo message to you all and in particular to Miss Sayer for inspiring us and creating the final edit! Mrs Milton combined the images to make a large photograph which is now on the school website and can be seen in the photo gallery and by following this link <http://www.st-marys-dover.kent.sch.uk/photo-gallery/>

With your permission it would be lovely to post some pictures of the children and/or their home learning work on the school Facebook page. If you have something you would like to share please email it me on headteacher@stmarysprimary.net.

I hope that you are able to mark the 75th anniversary of VE day on Friday 8th safely at home. The following link has some good ideas about how this is possible and information about what will be going on that we can join in with. <https://www.veday75.org/>

World War 2 Spitfires were out flying over the locality on Wednesday I wonder if any of you saw them?

Message from the Class Teacher

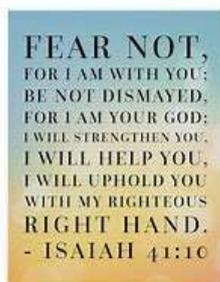

We hear lots of war terminology on the news lately. We are 'fighting' the virus; our nurses and doctors are on the 'front line'. As we eagerly await the news that some of the lockdown measures will be relaxed, we think back to another battle that was fought (and won) many years ago. VE day was on 8th May 1945 – 75 years ago, and we celebrated our victory as a nation. Help your children to understand why our celebration of this day is so important and how even the hardest battles (like the current one) can be won.

As for me, I have mastered many new skills – fashion (staying in pyjamas until 10am), culinary skills (constant eating) new vocabulary, such as soliloquium (talking to oneself) and patience (my husband is at home all day). Whether these skills will be useful when I return to school remains to be seen!

Please remember that you are most welcome to email me if you have any questions.
