Are they an animal, a fairy or a mixture of two different creatures like 	Create your own land that could be at the top of the far away tree. Use resource 1A to help. Here are some questions to help you plan what it might look like. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What might the buildings look like? • What are the buildings made from? • Who lives there? • How do the people move around? Do they walk on their feet or in a different way? • What is special about the land? • What is there to do in the land? • It might be like topsy turvery land where everything is upside down. • 	Your new character has just met the children Jo, Beth and Frannie for the first time whilst they were climbing up the far away tree. Answer the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How would the characters meet? • What would the characters say to one another? • What might the group of new friends decide to do? • Where might they go? • How might the children be feeling that they have met someone new? Extension: Using your imagination continue of the following conversation involving the main characters and your own character.	For today's Literacy Lesson please follow the link to the online video. https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/to-explore-simple-sentences-cmwp8r If working on paper please refer to separate activity.	For today's Literacy Lesson please follow the link to the online video. https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/to-explore-compound-sentences-6wt3jt If working on paper please refer to separate activity.

	moon man? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Does your character have any special abilities or powers? For example if they are an animal can they talk? What is their appearance like? What do they look like? What are their clothes like? What is their personality like? What is their name? Remember to use a range of adjectives to describe your new character. Once you have written your sentences draw a picture of the character that you have described in your descriptive sentences.		The children had managed to climb almost halfway up the tree, they felt exhausted so they decided to sit down and take a break before climbing the rest of the way to the new mysterious land. Suddenly, Jo heard a rustling noise from behind them. The children quickly turned around and they were shocked to see a strange creature. 'They must live in the far away tree' Whispered Frannie. 'We should go and say hello' said Beth. The children walked toward the creature and said.....
